PROFILE

ARTIST :: DIGITAL MEDIA PRACTITIONER :: VIDEO :: VJ :: EDUCATOR

Design/Academic practice:

- + Experienced educator within a digital media/graphic design context
- + As a practitioner I have a highly developed approach to methodology and design processes
- + Formalist thinking processes provide a strong foundation for design practice for other diverse strategies
- + Students become engaged in ongoing critical dialogue providing a context for generating design work
- + Students contextualise their design practice within various theoretical, historical discourses which can extend to social, political and environmental discourses and awareness to develop their content
- + Teaching incorporates cross-discipline approach allowing for collaboration within a conceptual framework
- + Disciplines engaged in: graphic design, digital media; video, drawing; fine arts
